Re: Reporting of Payments made to Practitioners in Calendar Year 2007

Please allow this Memo to serve as confirmation from Life Science Logistics, LLC (located at 8001 Cane Run Road, Louisville, KY 40258) that we have not made any of the below-mentioned payments to Minnesota practitioners:

- A payment to the sponsor of a medical conference, professional meeting, or other educational program, provided the payment is not made directly to a practitioner and is used solely for bona fide educational purposes;
- Reasonable honoraria and payment of the reasonable expenses of a practitioner who serves on the faculty at a professional or educational conference or meeting
- Compensation for the substantial professional or consulting services of a practitioner in connection with genuine research.

As requested this is our confirmation of the fact that we have not made any of the above-mentioned payments to Minnesota practitioners.

Please contact me if you need any additional information in this regard.
